

About Manifest:

Manifest Creative Research Gallery and Drawing Center is a 501(c)(3) non-profit arts organization based in the urban neighborhood of East Walnut Hills in Cincinnati, Ohio. The organization is supported by grants and public donations and has the goal to support student professionalism, integrate the arts into the urban residential community, and raise the bar on artistic standards. The mission also includes the ongoing support and display of drawing in all its various forms. The galleries are free and open to the public five hours a day, five days a week, presenting works by professionals and students from all around the world.

Mission statement:

Manifest stands for the quality presentation, experience, and documentation of the visual arts, engaging students, professionals, and the public from around the world through accessible world-class exhibits, studio programs, and publications.

CALL FOR WORKS

Exploring the Uncovered Human Form

Deadline: May 28, 2010

2nd annual

NUDE

MANIFEST

www.manifestgallery.org
2727 Woodburn Ave. Cincinnati, OH 45206

Theme

Manifest exhibits many kinds of works, from the most conceptual and experimental to more traditional. In fact we think it's important to have such a range in our repertoire. In our Drawing Center Studio we provide opportunities and instruction to professionals and students to study life-drawing. Although our studio is not limited to working just from the nude model, it is a core component in our curriculum, and our flagship studio offering. So a year ago we asked ourselves - why not add another annual exhibit to our roster, this one dedicated to works that in some way depict, explore, or address the human nude form? The first exhibit turned out to be a huge success in terms of response from artists as well as critical praise and number of people visiting the gallery to see the exhibit.

This year we are excited to renew our invitation to artists to submit works in any media, of any style or genre, (abstract, conceptual, highly realistic, etc.), and of any size, for consideration in Manifest's second annual NUDE, an international competitive exhibit exploring the uncovered human form in current art.

Eligibility

NUDE is open to everyone. Professionals as well as students are encouraged to enter. The only limitation is that entries must represent original works of art or design and represent or address the human nude in some way.

Media

Open to all traditional or non-traditional genre and media.

Delivery and Return of Work

All work accepted for the exhibition must arrive ready to install. Works not gallery-ready, or not exhibiting good craftsmanship, may be omitted from the exhibit. Accepted work that differs significantly from the entry images or suffers from poor presentation, will be disqualified. Work may be hand delivered or shipped. Shipped works must be sent in a reusable container with return shipping prepaid. Works will be returned in the same manner as delivered (or via UPS/USPS). All work must arrive at Manifest by the specified date (see calendar). Accepted work will remain on display for the duration of the exhibition.

Jury and Curator

Manifest's selection process involves a complex two-part system. This project will be juried by a 9-12 member panel of professional and academic advisors with a broad range of expertise. The jury will then pass along their scores to the project curator who will assemble the final selections from the jury-approved pool.

Entry Fee

Each work submitted must be accompanied by a $10 non-refundable entry fee. Number of entries is unlimited. Entry fee must be paid by U.S. check or money order made payable to MANIFEST in U.S. funds, or by credit card via PayPal. Detail images may be included at no additional cost but should only be included when necessary to explain or reveal the nature of the work more clearly.

Insurance

Works will be insured while on gallery premises. Insurance covers theft, vandalism, damage caused by gallery patrons or staff (in accordance with insurance policy). PLEASE NOTE: Insurance does not cover damage caused during shipping due to any reason, including mishandling by carrier or failure of packaging to protect works in transit. Also not covered is damage caused to work by failure of the work itself, its mounting systems installed by the artist, or disintegration or degradation due to the nature/quality of materials or craftsmanship.

Catalog

Manifest will produce a full-color catalog documenting the work exhibited. Exhibitors will receive one free copy of the catalog. Manifest is unique amongst galleries and museums around the world for designing and producing a high-quality full-color book for every exhibit produced. Artists will receive their copy either in person when retrieving work after the exhibit, or with the return shipment of their artwork. Additional copies can be purchased via the online bookstore. For examples of past catalogs visit the Bookstore on the Manifest website.

Sale of Work

All work, unless indicated as not for sale (NFS), will be available for sale during exhibit. Manifest Gallery will retain a commission of 30% on all artwork sold during the exhibition.

Images

In an effort to conserve resources Manifest accepts only digital images and entry forms for consideration. (see details below). The Gallery will retain the submitted images of accepted artwork and reserves the right to use the images in publications and gallery publicity. CD's of works not selected will only be returned if accompanied by a SASE. (online entry form required and emailed images highly preferred over mailed CD)

Image Format

Digital images should be sent by E-MAIL (email to: show@manifestgallery.org). The images must meet the following specifications: File names = artist's last name (underscore) first name, followed by the entry number as noted on the entry form (i.e. Jones_Mike_1.jpg).

Detail, installation, or alternate view images must include the word 'detail' in the filename (i.e. Jones_Mike_1detail1.jpg).

Image files should be in HIGH QUALITY JPEG format, images should be no smaller than 1000 pixels in any direction (about 13") and 72dpi. Images must be oriented properly (i.e. top of image is top of artwork) and must not include artist's name, or other descriptive text within the image itself, nor contain borders, frames, or margins except as part of the actual work. Video work should be sent with similar naming conventions in quicktime compatible format.

PLEASE follow these specifications carefully. Feel free to contact Manifest for assistance if you have questions. The email and online submission process is HIGHLY PREFERRED because it makes our process more efficient and saves postage and materials for the artists.

To Send Images

Via email - Include the artist's full name as subject along with 'NUDE 2010 submission' sent to: show@manifestgallery.org

If it is necessary to send images or video on CD: Clearly label the CD with the artist's full name. Follow the image specs above for file format/naming. (email submission preferred)

Hi-Res, print-quality images will be required for accepted works upon conclusion of the jury process. If suitable images are not provided, the work will not be included in the catalog.
