

About Manifest:

Manifest Creative Research Gallery and Drawing Center is a 501(c)(3) non-profit arts organization based in the urban neighborhood of East Walnut Hills in Cincinnati, Ohio. The organization is supported by grants and public donations and has the goal to support student professionalism, integrate the arts into the urban residential community, and raise the bar on artistic standards. The mission also includes the ongoing support and display of drawing in all its various forms. The galleries are free and open to the public five hours a day, five days a week, presenting works by professionals and students from all around the world.

Mission statement:

Manifest stands for the quality presentation, experience, and documentation of the visual arts, engaging students, professionals, and the public from around the world through accessible world-class exhibits, studio programs, and publications.

PAUSE

Contemporary Still-Life

MANIFEST

www.manifestgallery.org
2727 Woodburn Ave. Cincinnati, OH 45206

Theme: We live in man-made environments, filled with mundane and precious things. Some of these things we place incredible importance on, making them cultural talismans, and symbols of our identity, accomplishments, or aspirations. Others we take for granted, using, ignoring, discarding on a daily basis. Yet at some level everything shares an equivalence. The still-life genre has documented this object-oriented existence for centuries. But Manifest is curious, how is such work realized today? Therefore, Manifest Gallery is proud to announce this call for entries for the exhibit PAUSE: Contemporary Still-life.

Eligibility: PAUSE is open to everyone. Professionals as well as students are encouraged to enter. The only limitation is that entries must represent original works of art or design and address the theme in some way. Just what constitutes 'still-life' is up to each artist, and this does include the conventional definition.

Media: Open to all traditional and non-traditional genre and media, including but not limited to: sculpture, video, painting, drawing, printmaking, collage, ceramics, photography, etc.

Selection Process: Manifest's selection process involves a complex two-part system. See the opportunities page of the Manifest website for a complete explanation.

Catalog: Manifest will produce a full-color catalog documenting the work exhibited. Exhibitors will receive a 50% discount on one copy of the catalog (through end of exhibit).

Delivery and Return of Work: All work accepted for the exhibition must arrive ready to install. Works not gallery-ready, or not exhibiting good craftsmanship, may be omitted from the exhibit. Accepted work that differs significantly from the entry images or suffers from poor presentation, will be disqualified. Work may be hand delivered or shipped. Shipped works must be sent in a reusable container with return shipping prepaid. Works will be returned in the same manner as delivered or via UPS/USPS. All work must arrive at Manifest by the specified date (see calendar). Accepted work will remain on display for the duration of the exhibition.

Insurance: Works will be insured while on gallery premises. Insurance covers theft, vandalism, damage caused by gallery patrons or staff (in accordance with insurance policy). PLEASE NOTE: Insurance does not cover damage caused during shipping due to any reason, including mishandling by carrier or failure of packaging to protect works in transit. Also not covered is damage caused to work by failure of the work itself, its mounting systems installed by the artist, or disintegration/degradation due to the nature/quality of materials or craftsmanship.

Entry Fee: Each work submitted must be accompanied by a $10 non-refundable entry fee. Number of entries is unlimited. Entry fee must be paid by check made payable to MANIFEST, or by credit card via PayPal (after submitting the online form). Detail images may be included at no additional cost.

Sale of Work: All work, unless indicated as not for sale (NFS), will be available for sale during exhibit. Manifest Gallery will retain a commission of 30% on all artwork sold during the exhibition.

Images: In an effort to conserve resources Manifest accepts only digital images for consideration. (see details below). The Gallery will retain the submitted images of accepted artwork and reserves the right to use the images in publications and gallery publicity. CD's of works not selected will only be returned if accompanied by a SASE.

(emailed digital entries and online form submissions preferred)

Digital Format: Digital images can be submitted on CD or by E-MAIL (email to: show@manifestgallery.org). The email and online submission process is HIGHLY PREFERRED because it makes our process more efficient and saves postage and materials for the artists. Hi-Res, print-quality images will be requested for accepted works upon conclusion of the jury process. If suitable images are not provided, the work may not be included in the catalog.

To Send Via Email: The email should include the artist's full name as subject along with 'PAUSE submission.' The images must meet the following specifications: File names = artist's last name followed by the entry number as noted on the entry form (i.e. Jones1.jpg, Jones1detail1.jpg, etc.). Note that any alternate views or detail shots MUST include the term 'detail' in the file name. The image files should be in HIGH QUALITY JPEG format or better, images should be no smaller than 1000 pixels in any direction and 72dpi. Images must be oriented properly (i.e. top of image is top of artwork). PLEASE follow these specifications carefully. Feel free to contact Manifest for assistance if you have questions.
